$500,000 Paid for Mine in Beaver Creek Field

Whitesburg, Ky.—The Old Colony Coal Company, a $1,000,000 corporation of New York City, has purchased a new mining plant in the Beaver Creek coal fields north of here at a reported price of $500,000. It is also said that this corporation will purchase surrounding properties.

The Holley Coal Company, organized a few days ago in Ashland by Dr. M. M. Collins, will launch another large development in that territory. Nearly half a million dollars will be expended in the work.

As a result of the industrial activity in the Beaver Creek section the Floyd County State Bank has been organized and will open for business in Allen, a new town, within the next few days. D. B. Stephens and Henry Porter are back of the new institution.

At Allen, the Elmer-Elkhorn Coal Company is another new corporation organized by Elmer E. George, F. George George and Arthur George. It is planned to launch the new work at once.

All this new development will continue to tax the carrying capacity of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad entering the new field.

MISS LOUISE ARNOLD DIES

News of the death of Miss Louise Arnold, of Columbus, O., came very unexpectedly last Friday to friends in Louisa. She had been in poor health in the past few years, but a short time ago had been reported as feeling better since going to the Adirondack mountains. She had been camping at Plattsburgh, N. Y., for the summer and her death took place there.

The body was brought to Ironton, Ohio, where on Monday afternoon funeral services were held from the home of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Arnold. Services were conducted by Rev. W. H. Hampton and burial was in Woodland cemetery.

Miss Arnold was the only child of Dr. and Mrs. O. Arnold, of Columbus, both of whom passed away a few years ago. She was a niece of L. S. Johnson of Frankfort, and frequently visited Mr. and Mrs. Johnson when they lived here. She was the guest of Mrs. Mary B. Horton about a year ago.

Miss Arnold was quite intellectual and very highly educated. She and her mother had spent much time in traveling not only in America, but in Europe.

MINGO MURDER CASES CONTINUED AND MOVED

Williamson, W. Va.—On motion of the state and over objection of counsel for the defense, Judge James Damm, of Mingo county circuit court, ordered the trials of 24 men, indicted on charges of murder in connection with the killing of ten persons at Matewan last May, to be continued until January 19, 1921.

A change of venue to Greenbrier county was granted to those applying for it. In order to have the fairest possible trial, all these cases should be moved out of the coal fields.

SURVIVORS OF THE 14TH KENTUCKY

Congressman W. J. Fields has very kindly secured a list of surviving members of C. G. 14th Ky. Infantry, of which we recently published a full list.

Editor, Big Sandy News,
Louisa, Kentucky.

Dear Sir:

I observed in your issue of August 13, that you wanted a list of the soldiers who served in Company G, 14th Kentucky Infantry, during the Civil War that are now living, with their post office addresses. Through the courtesy of Mr. M. L. Dawkins, a native Kentuckian, now in the Government service, I have secured such a list, which includes all the survivors of said organization including recruits not borne on the list you published.

The list follows:

Bell, Greenville; Mattie Ky.
Burton, Thomas J.; Wilbur, Ky.
Chapman, Albert; Cudahy, Wis.
Cleveland, Alexander; Shawnee, Okla.
Collins, John C.; Paola, Kansas.
Gibbs, Abraham; Mingo, Ky.
Hager, Fernandes; Midkiff, W. Va.
Kimbler, Joseph; Rooney, Ky.
Lawson, George W.; Gladys, Ky.
Pack, Thomas; Inez, Ky.
Roberts, Reuben C.; Louisa, Ky.
Wellman, Elsie F.; Halcorn, Ky.
Whelchel, James; Fulton, Ky.
Young, Robert H.; Lowmansville, Ky.

I am glad to furnish this on account of the historic value of the data. It is a well known fact that this organization counted among its membership many of the men who have made the Big Sandy Valley famous, and their descendants are now among the most prominent citizens of East Kentucky.

Very truly yours,

W. J. FIELDS.

The Lawrence County S. S. Convention

Because of the funeral of R. T. Burns, our former president and distinguished citizen, this was the shortest convention in the long and splendid history of our association. In the absence of the president, M. S. Bjorns, vice president A. O. Carter presided. Dr. Anderson made a splendid address, and then the convention took up the business of electing officers. On motion all officers were reelected. After the convention adjourned it was ascertained that Mr. M. S. Burns, who has served so faithfully and well for ten years could not accept the presidency for another year. It is to be regretted, for he has done excellent field work at enormous expense of energy and time for all these years, but we have to submit to his decision. The duty naturally falls on Mr. Carter, the vice president. The association and the Sunday Schools of the county are to be congratulated on their own wisdom in selecting Mr. Carter for this position. There is no better man nor truer friend to the work than Mr. Carter. With love and honor to the retiring president, we turn with honor and love to support the new president.

AUTO LICENSE FEES TOTAL $39,447 IN LAST MONTH

Frankfort, Ky.—A total of $39,447.81 in automobile license fees was collected in Kentucky in July and August, 1920, compared with $33,033.20 for the same period last year. In the opinion of James A. Scott, chairman of the State Tax Commission, the increase in automobile license fees this year will cover the entire expenses of the tax department, amounting to $40,000. The commission is planning for careful checking of all motorists at county clerks' offices during the month of January.

The time was very pleasantly spent at the county clerk's office.

BRICK PLANT AT TORCHLIGHT IS BEING BUILT

NEW INDUSTRY OF LARGE IMPORTANCE NOW IN COURSE OF CONSTRUCTION.

Through the enterprise of Mr. C. E. Stafford, the coal man, a large brick and tile plant will soon be a reality at Torchlight, five miles south of Louisa.

A large force of teams and men this week started the work of grading on the site for the big plant. It is expected to have it ready for operation in about three months.

The location is at the north end of Yellowtown on the west side of the river. The plans include a light steel pier bridge, to carry cars and motors to a 1200 foot siding on the C. & O. railroad. The bridge will carry a foot-way on one side.

The main building is to be 300x70 feet. The kiln is to be of Drum patent construction, modern in every respect. Mr. Stafford has a fine electric plant on the same property.

This is a very important enterprise. It has been known for a long time that this locality contains large and very fine deposits of fire clay and building brick clay. In fact, these clays are found all around Louisa and at many places in the Big Sandy valley.

Brick and tile will be manufactured at Torchlight. The coal is there and the facilities for producing and handling the products will be the most economical possible.

Mr. Stafford is to be congratulated upon his success in promoting this enterprise.

Another Hearing for Wagon Coal Mines

Washington.—Operators of wagon coal mines in Eastern Kentucky will be given a hearing before the Interstate Commerce Commission Wednesday, when they will protest against the recent order of the commission giving the priority right to use of gondola coal cars to the larger tipple mines.

Judge J. Flem Gordon, of Madisonville, who represented the wagon mine operators of Webster and Hopkins county last Saturday, will remain in Washington to attend the hearing of the Eastern Kentucky operators.

Meeting of Oil Men at Louisa Friday Morning

An important meeting of oil operators with prominent oil men will be held in Louisa on Friday morning of this week.

Mr. Young, who is next in authority to Joseph Seep, of the Seep Purchasing Agency, will be one of the number who will meet the Big Sandy oil operators. Also, Mr. J. Hoeling, manager of the Kentucky branch of the Standard Oil company's interests, is expected to be present.

The exact place of meeting has not been announced. All persons producing oil or having royalty oil for sale in any considerable quantities should be present, as matters affecting them will be discussed.

GAS CASE WILL BE HEARD OCT. 7

The Railroad Commission of Kentucky has over-ruled the motion of the United Fuel Gas Company in the case of the cities of Catlettsburg, Louisa and Ashland in regard to the price being charged in excess of that assessed against our neighbors just across the river.

The Railroad Commission has ordered a hearing of the case at Frankfort on October 7th.

Notice to this effect has been received by R. C. McClure, one of the attorneys for the cities.

Notice To Teachers.

The last examination for this year and the last under the old law will be held at Louisa Sept. 17 and 18th. I advise all persons who are thinking of teaching to take this examination. After this year to be eligible for admission to the examination the applicant must have at least one year of High School, second year two, etc.

The applicant who makes a first class certificate in September will be qualified to teach anywhere in the State for four years without any other requirements. The party who makes a second class will be qualified to teach for two years without further preparation.

My Board of Examiners is paid by the day and their fee is the same with a few applicants as many, neither does the County Supt. benefit by the many or few. I am giving you this story that you may look Burke open.

KENTUCKY LEADS IN PRODUCTION OF OIL

Washington.—Kentucky and Tennessee oil fields, grouped together because there is only one large producing company in Tennessee led all States east of the Mississippi River in production of petroleum during July, according to statistics made public by the Geological Survey.

The Kentucky production, however, was less than that of May or June. Kentucky and Tennessee produced 749,000 barrels a daily average of 24,161 barrels during July. In June the production was 754,000 according to revised figures, a daily average of 25,133, and in May it was 768,000, a daily average of 24,774.

The production of the United States increased from 37,295,000 barrels in June to 38,419,000 barrels in July.

ROAD WORKING LAW IN FORCE

There is an impression among a very great many people, especially those that do not want to work, that there is no law requiring all able bodied men between the ages of 15 and 50 years to work the road six days in each year. Now I want to say that this is a mistaken idea, there is a law of that kind and so far as I am concerned or am informed that law is going to be enforced in every instance and there is going to be no exceptions whatever. But I can not enforce this law without the overseers doing their duty.

It will be the duty for each overseer in the county to warn his hands not less than two days before the day upon which he is expected to work and it shall be the duty of said hand to provide himself with the necessary tools and implements and work upon the road to which he has been assigned six days in each year.

Heretofore overseers have been instructed to make their reports to the Justice of the Peace in the Magisterial District in which the road was located, but I find in a very great many instances this has not been done and I find that some hands work and some do not, and it is not fair to those that work not to require other legal hands to work. The enforcement of this law is going to depend upon THREE THINGS:—IS HE A LEGAL ROAD HAND? WAS HE LEGALLY WARNED? AND DID HE FAIL TO WORK?

Further, this does not apply to road hands only, the various overseers over the county are going to be required to do their duty in warning their hands and they must file their reports, if they have no blank reports they can be had by calling upon or writing the County Clerk and they will promptly be furnished them. The overseers can not force his hands to work but he can do his duty and report them and when he has done this that is all the law requires of him, and he should make his report to me hereafter.

The law makes it a penalty for any one assigned to work upon a public road who shall, without good cause, fail to appear with proper implements, and do good work thereon, after having been notified for two days by the officer having supervision of the road, by him to give said notice and shall, upon trial and conviction before a justice of the peace or the county judge, be fined for each day he so fails to work, two dollars and fifty cents. All such fines, when collected, shall be used for road purposes, and upon failure to pay, a CAPIAS PRO FINE may issue.

It has been the practice heretofore, in a great many instances, when a warrant or summons issued against a man for not working the road to come in and agree to put in his time if the case would be dismissed, which is equivalent to saying that I took the chance and got caught and am now willing to put in my time. This is not going to be the future practice of this court.

This law, good or bad as it may be, is a Statute law and not the product of a Fiscal Court, as some might think, and a strict observance of it will certainly give us better roads and the people have a right to expect its enforcement, and it is the purpose of this notice to give the people due knowledge of the future policy of this court that they may be advised and govern themselves accordingly.

Most respectfully,
BILLIE RIFFE,
County Judge.

WILL NOT FIX COAL PRICES

Washington.—The Federal Government will not agree at the present time to fix prices on coal mined in Eastern Kentucky, or elsewhere, for that matter, it was stated by officials of the Department of Justice, following the request made for such action by State Senator Charles M. Harris, Versailles, and attorneys representing the operators of the Harlan, Hazard, Northeastern and Southern Appalachian fields.

This request was made by the operators, it is said, as a result of the investigation now under way by the Federal grand jury in Covington of an illegal case of coal profiteering.

The operators asked United States Attorney Thomas F. Slattery of the Eastern Kentucky district to hold up this investigation pending the Supreme Court action on the constitutionality of the Lever act. But Mr. Slattery refused this request.

It was stated at the Department of Justice that the delegation representing the operators has submitted data on operating costs, which will be referred to Mr. Slattery. The grand jury, it was said by Henry L. Mitchell of the department, will continue the investigation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce CHARLEY EDWARDS as a candidate for the Republican nomination for County Clerk of Lawrence Co., at the primary to be held in August, 1921.

Friday, September 10, 1920.

Gov. Cox is on a 30 days tour of the west, speaking several times each day. He is greeted everywhere by large and enthusiastic crowds, who applaud and admire his pointed and courageous utterances. He dodges nothing. In the east he had the same great meetings. His election is being freely predicted.

The Martin County Advertiser is the name of a newspaper just started at Warfield, Ky. The first issue is a newsy and well edited paper. The editor and publisher need not be ashamed to print his name on the sheet. For that or some other reason he has failed to do so.

There is only one way to meet all American needs. That one way is work. Prices will not come down until production increases, no matter who is Governor or President, or whether Congress is Republican or Democratic. The law of supply and demand is the only remedy. Idleness and half-time work are doing more to nullify that law than all other things combined. You can not reduce the cost of living by howling about it. But the cost can be reduced by everybody doing more and better work in every line.

Report of James P. Prince,

Secretary of Lawrence Co.

Sunday School Association

I have visited the State convention, also a district convention and have written about 20 letters. Have visited 12 different schools, some three or four times, giving about 20 Sunday School talks during the year; traveled over 400 miles. At my last report I had $3.70 in my hands; since that time have received from Charley convention, Evergreen and Walnut Gap schools $3.50, making a total of $12.25. I gave the State Secretary check for same. Since then received from Elizabeth Hatten $5.35, this amount is still in my hands.

We think the Sunday School work is improving fine as we find 55 schools in the county and there may be some we have not heard from. There have been but two district conventions held this summer. I trust the district officers will go to work and hold their conventions at once. We should be encouraged in this year's work as we are having more schools and better schools than for some time.

As we will soon enter on a new year's work, let us all work harder and away more than ever before. The Sunday School workers will never know what great good they are accomplishing but go on do your best and leave the results in the hands of God who will do all things right.

There is one thing we all should be proud of, there are more schools in Lawrence county than in any county east of Covington, in fact there are very few counties in the State having more schools than Lawrence county.

I don't think there is a county in the State that has less criminals than Lawrence. I think the Sunday Schools have a great deal to do with it. The fight that temperance has gained the victory and John Barleycorn is almost a thing of the past.

The Sunday School Convention this year was a sad one as Hon. R. T. Burns had just passed away. He was a great friend to the Sunday Schools as he was president of the Lawrence County Association for 20 years. When I was holding district conventions I was glad to see Brother Burns coming as he always put new life into a convention.

I can imagine how he would sing "We'll roll, roll, the old chariot along."

D. L. Moody said some day "D. L. Moody is dead," but there wouldn't be a word of truth in it. I will be more alive than ever before. So brother Burns is not dead and will still live in the minds of the Sunday School people of Lawrence county.

Apparel of Distinction and Quality--Exclusively

Is Featured In Our Autumn Exhibits

"Quality" is the most abused word in the entire vocabulary of many mercantile establishments. It is often used without real thought or meaning, and frequently from mere habit and ignorance. The most flagrant form of abuse is to claim quality for the shoddy garment of good outward appearance that possesses "inward" defects of making and materials.

The Test of Quality

Most women are good judges of fabrics, and this knowledge is of first importance in the selection of any garment. Often inferior apparel is good in this respect, but would not stand the test of closer inspection. Analyze the garment that appeals to you—inspect the lining, the stitching—then try it on. Note the depth of the hem, the "set" of the shoulders, and especially he back where inferior tailoring is most often revealed. Look for skimpiness and imperfections, for quality is impossible where the accepted standards of good manufacturing are ignored. If a garment will stand this minute inspection, it is no doubt of good quality—and quality is all-important.

The Assurance of Quality

Any garment you may purchase from us is sold to you in good faith. Our years of experience in purchasing for a particular clientele have made our demands for quality a rule to which there are no exceptions. Here, true quality is a settled fact, and prices are consistent with real worth.

"Gratitude is the fairest blossom which springs from the soul; and the heart of man knoweth none more fragrant."

SUMMER SALADS.

There is no dish which is more appealing to the appetite during the warm weather than crisp, succulent salads or those of juicy fruit.

Onion Salad.—Chop mild onions; add minced parsley and pour over a well seasoned dressing. Serve on head lettuce.

Strawberry Salad.—Arrange tender, white lettuce leaves in cup shapes. Fill each cup with strawberries and put a tablespoonful of mayonnaise in each cup. Mustard and cayenne should be omitted from the mayonnaise.

Grapefruit and Celery Salad.—Mix grapefruit pulp with finely cut celery, using twice as much grapefruit as celery. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise.

The Three P's.—Take a cupful each of stewed quartered prunes, pineapple and rolled peanuts; mix well and serve in lettuce cups with a French dressing.

Tomato and Chive Salad.—Peel and chill small, ripe, round tomatoes; roll in a boiled salad dressing, then in chopped chives. Arrange on the white leaves of lettuce and serve well-chilled.

Pea and Walnut Salad.—Take equal quantities of cold cooked peas and English walnuts, broken in bits. Sprinkle with French dressing, let stand half an hour and mix with mayonnaise. Serve in lettuce or lemon cups.

Mustard and Lettuce.—Take the small green mustard plants, mix with young lettuce and serve with French dressing. The mustard, cut fine and mixed with cottage cheese, makes a most tasty salad, adding a little cooked salad dressing.

Radish and Onion Salad.—Cut in thin slices, without peeling, small radishes, and the same-sized onions; arrange on lettuce and serve crisp and cool. Pass the salad dressing, either mayonnaise or French.

WEAK; RUN-DOWN

"olina Lady Got So She Could Just Drag."—"Cardui Built Me Up," She Declares.

Kernersville, N. C.—in an interesting statement regarding Cardui, the Woman's Tonic, Mrs. Wesley Mabe, of near here, recently said: "I have known Cardui for years, but never knew its worth until a year or so ago. I was in a weakened, run-down condition. I became draggy—didn't eat or sleep to do any good; couldn't do anything without a great effort. I tried different remedies and medicines, yet I continued to drag."

"I decided to give Cardui a trial, and found it was just what I really needed. It made me feel much stronger soon after I began to use it. I began to eat more, and the nervous, weak feeling began to leave. Soon I was sleeping good."

"Cardui built me up as no other tonic ever did."

"I used Cardui with one daughter who was puny, felt bad and tired out all the time. It brought her right out, and soon she was as well as a girl could be. We think there is nothing like Cardui."

Do not allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. You may find it just what you really need. For more than 40 years it has been used by thousands and thousands, and found to be as Mrs. Mabe describes. At your druggist's. NC-143

FOURTH RED CROSS ROLL CALL ANNOUNCED

Announcing the Fourth Red Cross Roll Call, to be held between November 11 and November 25, 1920, Dr. Livingston Farrand, chairman of the Central Committee, made known the fact that as a result of last year's Roll Call, the American Red Cross has ten million members.

The Red Cross has decided to make each anniversary of the ending of the world war the occasion for renewing allegiance to the "Greatest Mother" by means of the dollar membership. Thus the Fourth Roll Call will have for its purpose the maintenance of a nearly universal membership as possible and the support of peace time activities.

These activities are continuation of measures in behalf of America's veterans of the World War, particularly the disabled; service to the peace time Army and Navy; development of a stouter resistance to disease through health centers; increasing of the country's nursing resources; continued preparedness for disaster relief; Home Service and community work; and completion of relief work among the war-exhausted and disease-ridden peoples overseas.

QUESTIONNAIRE BRINGS MONEY FOR VACATION

In a certain Lake Division town, there's a mother of a former soldier who has nearly $100 extra to spend for herself this summer.

The Red Cross Home Service section in that community sent questionnaires to all ex-service men, asking them if all their war-time affairs had been satisfactorily settled.

The particular soldier in question was discharged soon after the Armistice and had never learned that some travel pay was due him. After he had read over the questionnaire he decided to look up the Home Service secretary and find out about some of the things noted among the queries.

As a result he just received a check for $96.48 that he didn't know was due him until the Red Cross questionnaire came. He gave the money to his mother for a vacation. This is a typical example of the service given by the Red Cross.

RED CROSS NURSES WIN SCHOLARSHIPS

Nine Red Cross chapters in the Lake Division have given scholarships for a four-months' post graduate course in Public Health Nursing at Western Reserve University, Cleveland, to nurses in their communities.

On completion of their study Sept. 1, they will return to their homes and carry on the Public Health Nursing program of the Red Cross, which includes visiting nursing, school nursing, instruction work, and general community service in caring for health.

Chapters which have awarded these scholarships are Richmond, Union County, Ohio; Lagrange, Ind.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Montpelier, Williams County, Ohio; Zanesville, Ohio; Brazil, Ind.; South Bend, Ind.; West Alexandria, Ohio, and Bluffton, Ind.

TRAINING COURSES OPEN FOR TRAINING RED CROSS WORKERS

In the summer session at Ohio State University, Columbus, the Red Cross, in co-operation with the university, is offering a six weeks' course of training for persons who wish to become Red Cross executive secretaries or chapter managers.

This is designed to meet the demand for trained executives to promote the Red Cross peace time program. Instructors include prominent men on the university faculty, National and Divisional Red Cross leaders and others of national repute.

COMMUNITY INSPIRED TO INCORPORATE TOWN

Coke Otto, a small mining community near Hamilton, Ohio, isn't content to be just a group of people any longer.

Coke Otto wants to be an incorporated town.

And it's all the result of community meetings and activities inaugurated by the Rural Extension Secretary of Hamilton Chapter of the Red Cross.

When Hamilton engaged its rural worker, she went among other places to Coke Otto, where perhaps 700 people live. Sanitary conditions were very lax there, so one of the first movements was the organization of a "tin can brigade." This was divided into eight sub-regiments and prizes were offered the group that kept the most rubbish out of the community for a specified length of time.

Subsequent community meetings have shown the people of Coke Otto the need for street clean-ups, flood protection and sanitation. After the third meeting the community decided that better and quicker results could be obtained through united efforts. Hence the plan to become an incorporated town.

Armistice Day, November 11, to Thanksgiving Day, November 25—the Fourth Red Cross Roll Call.

DO YOUR DUTY

Do your duty, little man. That's the way! There's some duty in the plan Of every day. Every day has some new task For your hand; Do it bravely—that's the way Life grows grand.

"Do your duty" sing the stars. That so bright Through the midnight's dusky bars Shed the light. "Do your duty" says the sun High in heaven; To the dutiful, when tasks are done Crowns are given.

Crowns of power and crowns of fame; Crowns of life; In glory burns the victors name; After strife. Do your duty, never swerve— Smooth or rough— Until God, whom we all serve, Says "Enough."

Luella Clark.

Good motherhood calls for a great deal of sacrifice, but it never calls for the sacrifice of a reasonable husband's happiness. The most appreciative and fond fathers like to talk of something sometimes besides "the baby." They like to go places sometimes without the baby. Yet many a good woman fails to understand her husband's feelings in this matter. She humiliates him by accusing him of jealousy of his own children. She forgets that she took the vows of wifehood before she took the duties of motherhood. To be sure she must give her children tender care and attention. Any woman who did not would be a monstrosity. But there are times when her personal presence and advice would mean heaven to her husband while to the children it is no more than they have always had.

Is contentment a state of mind to strive for? It has always been considered so, but isn't it rather a dangerous quality? Doesn't it tend rather toward sluggishness? A cow is a perfect picture of content, but who wants to be a cow? Contentment may be a desirable state of mind for age but never for youth. In our smaller village we see too many who have become contented with themselves and their lot early in life? Don't do it! Never be satisfied with yourself! Never give up the struggle to improve your mind and your position! It is the most effective weapon against old age. As soon as you sit back and begin to take life easy, old age is going to overtake you by leaps and bounds.

Contentment, in the commonly accepted meaning of the term, is not a good trait for anyone. Develop poise and calm judgment, but strive always for higher and better things. Contentment smacks too much of self-satisfaction.

Too many of our young people are waiting for the "golden opportunity." They believe they will recognize it by some psychic wave which will pass over their being. Weak men wait for opportunities but strong men make them. They seize common occasions and make them great. History is full of such instances—chances which most people would have thought impossible to take. Think of the time when Horatius with two companions held ninety thousand Trojans at bay until the bridge across the Tiber had been destroyed—when Leonidas at Thermopylae checked the mighty march of Xerxes—when for years Napoleon did not lose a single battle in which he was personally engaged—when Sheridan arrived at Winchester just in time to keep the Union retreat from becoming a rout by riding along the lines.

It is true that these men are above the average in daring and clear thinking but it is also true that the obstacles they overcame were above the average. We cannot all be Napoleons but we do not all have obstacles such as the Alps to cross.

A sculptor at one time made the figure of a man whose face was concealed by hair and which had wings on its feet. He called the figure Opportunity. "The hair over his face," he explained, "is there because people seldom know him when he comes to them. He has wings on his feet because he is soon gone and once gone, cannot be overtaken."

Why wait, young people, for opportunity—make it. Born in a country and in an age when opportunities abound as never before, why sit with folded hands?

"Are you in earnest? Seize this very minute; What you can do or dream you can, begin it."

GETS RID OF HER TROUBLES AT 75

"TANLAC IS CERTAINLY A FINE MEDICINE FOR ELDERLY PEOPLE," SHE SAYS.

Among the many Kentucky people who have recently testified to the powers of Tanlac is Mrs. Nannie Chapell, residing at 3734 Old Third street, Louisville, who in relating her experience said:

"I am now seventy-five years of age, but I doubt if there are many women that old who feel any better than I do since taking Tanlac. Why, during all the years of my life I have never seen or heard of a medicine to equal it, for a few bottles have relieved me of a case of rheumatism, nervousness and indigestion that had troubled me for twenty-three years. Sometimes my lower limbs hurt me so bad I couldn't walk and at times my arms pained me so I couldn't raise my hands to comb my hair. I had several attacks every year and while they were on me I could neither get up or down without help. Many a time I got so nervous I would shake like a leaf and just dread to see night come, for it was impossible for me to sleep. My appetite left me, too, and everything I ate disagreed with me."

"Finally I got so bad off with this rheumatism that I couldn't stay on my feet any longer. While I was down in bed my son, who is a passenger engineer on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, came to see me and said, 'Mother you remember how I suffered so long with stomach trouble and could hardly eat at all and lost weight and thought I would have to quit work. Well, you see me now weighing two hundred and fifteen pounds, and in such a good condition that I can eat pork or anything else I want and my health just perfect. Tanlac did this for me and I'm going to get you a bottle.' So he did and almost as soon as I began taking it I felt better. In a few days I had a good appetite and was able to get out of bed. I have taken three bottles of Tanlac now and am feeling like a different person. Every sign of the rheumatism is gone and I am not only able to sleep soundly every night but I usually take a nap during the day. Tanlac is certainly a fine medicine for old people and I will gladly tell anyone personally just what it has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Louisa by Mrs. J. H. Reynolds.

The Certain-teed Guarantee as a Basis for Estimating Roofing Cost

The Certain-teed guarantee provides a basis for estimating the approximate cost per year of your new roof. Certain-teed Roofing, Number 3 Heavy, is guaranteed for fifteen years. It usually lasts longer.

Taking fifteen years as the assured life and dividing the unusually low cost of Certain-teed, as compared to most modern types of roofing, by this figure, you readily see how economical Certain-teed is.

The light and medium weights of Certain-teed are also guaranteed, five years for the former and ten years for the latter.

In addition to its durability, Certain-teed is weather-proof, fire-retarding and spark-proof.

And it costs less to buy, less to lay and less to maintain than any other type of good roofing.

See a Certain-teed dealer about roofing. If he hasn't enough of the weight you want in stock he can quickly get more from a nearby Certain-teed warehouse or distributing center.

The Certain-teed Guarantee as a Basis for Estimating Roofing Cost

The Certain-teed guarantee provides a basis for estimating the approximate cost per year of your new roof. Certain-teed Roofing, Number 3 Heavy, is guaranteed for fifteen years. It usually lasts longer.

Taking fifteen years as 'he assured life and dividing the unusually low cost of Certain-teed, as compared to most modern types of roofing, by this figure, you readily see how economical Certain-teed is.

The light and medium weights of Certain-teed are also guaranteed, five years for the former and ten years for the latter.

In addition to its durability, Certain-teed is weather-proof, fire-retarding and spark-proof.

And it costs less to buy, less to lay and less to maintain than any other type of good roofing.

See a Certain-teed dealer about roofing. If he hasn't enough of the weight you want in stock he can quickly get more from a nearby Certain-teed warehouse or distributing center.
